

Ancient Wealth Principles for business success

Meet Charmaine

HELLO THERE! I'M CHARMAINE

I help business owners receive more money, more easily doing the work they were born to do!

With my Personal Wealth Formula, I teach ancient wealth practices that attract money and clients to you. By working with your angels and incorporating ancient practices into your everyday life, you can increase your revenue and call your ideal clients to you.

There are specific energetic techniques you can use to call your soulmate clients to you and close them with more ease and grace. My clients live their life's purpose in a joyful and abundant way!

What are you waiting for? Let's talk about it!

WHAT ARE THE PRINCIPLES?

3 Ancient Principles You Can Use to Build Your Business

1. ATTRACT YOUR IDEAL CLIENT WITH ENERGY

Your mind, body and spirit can send out energetic messages like a radio station. And, only your ideal client will be “tuned in.” Make notes about the steps here:

2. INCREASE YOUR MONEY CONTAINER

Everyone has an energetic container that holds all the money they can accept. Your container may be too small to hold all the money you’d like. Or maybe you were taught to be afraid to spend money, so you don’t have a natural in and out flow.

Or, maybe you were taught rich people were mean or bad (ie. filthy rich), and so you keep your container small to avoid being bad or mean.

These unconscious beliefs can get in the way of building the business of your dreams. I clear your trauma and beliefs around money so you can open your container up wide and receive lots of money!

3. USE YOUR PERSONAL MONEY FORMULA

Everyone has a unique money formula that brings them abundance.

Your money formula has 3 important parts:

1. Your money day
2. Your money color
3. Your Calling

When you have all three of these working for you, you can more easily raise your prices and your ideal client is more ready to work with you.

Your Gifts, Your Calling

Every spiritually gifted person was sent here on a mission. By the time we've made it through school and grown up, many of us have forgotten it. However, your angelic guidance team never forgets. They know your calling and the purpose for your spiritual abilities.

And, they can help you understand what your particular purpose is within those abilities. Most of us are already aware that we are spiritually gifted. But, do we really know what we're supposed to be doing with them? Not always.

Once my angels guided me to my specific life purpose, my angels were able to lead people to me who needed exactly what I had to offer.

Angelic Guidance

A major part of the ancient wealth principles and your personal wealth formula is angelic guidance. Instead of running market research or going wherever the wind leads you, angelic guidance will help you to get laser focused on what your mission is.

When you step into your perfect niche, you tap into the angelic lead generation system.

CLIENTS AS NEEDED

Your angels know exactly where you are in your business and with your calling. One reason you may not be enrolling a lot of clients is because you are not in your correct niche or you don't have the right target market.

However, there are spiritual reasons why you may not be growing your business as you would as well.

DIVINE PERMISSION

Did you know that you may need divine permission to use your gifts? There are certain abilities where you need permission from our Creator to use them. If you're an energy worker, you must make sure you have permission to work with it.

Not all energy workers need it. It depends on the energy work you do. Your angels will give you all the details.

DIVINE PROTECTION

All energy workers and healers need protection. However, there are various levels.

The first level, many people already know about. This is the level of energy that you pick up when someone is feeling a certain type of emotion - maybe sadness or regret.

If you are sensitive, you can feel the energy of their emotions while you all are together. And, if you are even more sensitive, you may carry some of their emotion away, even after they've gone. Even though you are capable of absorbing their energy, you don't have to.

I teach my clients to build their energy protection permanently. Set it and forget it. There are also higher levels of protection needed for certain abilities.

ALIGNED WITH YOUR SOUL'S MISSION

Many gifted individuals have multiple gifts and aren't using them as intended. Others have gifts they aren't even aware of.

When I consult with your angels, you'll understand which gifts you have and your soul's purpose for them.

You'll know who your target market is and how you were meant to serve them.

My client was drawn to energy work. So, she tried many modalities, never really getting her business moving. When her angels told her exactly which gift to use and who to use it for, she began to attract clients right away. And, I hadn't even finished teaching her the ancient wealth principles yet!
